BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Small blue colored berries offer a diverse range of micronutrients including powerful antioxidants such as resveratrol and anthocyanins. Blueberries are considered to be an exceptional superfood incredibly high in vitamins, minerals, and dietary fibre. Our blueberries are cultivated with extra care in the Chilean blueberry orchards. Chile's coastal, central valley and mountain climates with the combination of warm and cool seasons are ideal for growth of blueberries. Once the harvest is collected the blueberries undergo a freeze-drying process to obtain a powder that preserves all of the raw berry's nutritional benefits. It is delicious when added to your yoghurt or smoothie recipes. Our organic Blueberry Powder is certified organic by the Soil Association under the code NL-BIO-01.
